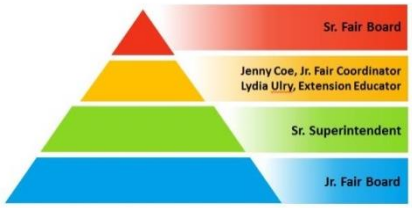
Fayette County Fair Problem Solving Pyramid



FAIR DATES - JULY 19 THRU JULY 24

RULES AND REGULATIONS

We hope exhibitors will cooperate with us and make their entries by the deadline of July 10.

1. Competition open, except as otherwise stated.
2. Entry blanks may be had upon application on July 9-10 ONLY.
3. All entries should be made in the name of the bonafide owner of the animal or article.
4. Conditions and rules governing entrance fee, stall rent and pen rent are stated under each respective department.
5. The Society reserves the right to itself interpret all conditions and regulations, settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with or incident to the Fair. Parking is available on the grounds. The Fayette County Agricultural Society assumes no responsibility for damage to or loss of parked vehicles or personal property contained within parked vehicles.
6. All articles exhibited for premium must be entered in the class in which they belong, and the Secretary will keep a record of the same; an entry tag shall be placed upon said article and a claim check to identify their goods at the close of the Fair. Should the claim be lost, exhibitors will be required to furnish satisfactory evidence or affidavit as to ownership of goods.
7. All exhibits cannot be moved until Saturday at 4 PM.
8. All exhibits entered for competition shall be subject to the control of the Superintendent of the department in which they are exhibited. But this Society will in no case be responsible for loss or damage that may occur to same. Each exhibitor shall be responsible for any injury that may be occasioned to any person whomsoever by any animal or article.
9. The Society reserves the right to declare off premiums and awards, or postponing the Fair on account of weather or other sufficient cause.
10. If the amount of receipts after current expenses are paid is not sufficient to pay all premiums in full, a dividend may be struck and the premiums will be paid pro-rata.

JUDGES

1. The single-judge system will be used as near as possible.
2. No one shall act as judge in any department if directly interested in any animal or article exhibited or if nearly related to any exhibitor.
3. Objections to any person serving as judge must be submitted to the Superintendent in charge, in writing, prior to making any awards, giving good and sufficient reason therefore, and upon which the Superintendent in charge shall have full power to act.
4. No premium shall be awarded when the exhibit is unworthy, though there be no competition.
5. Should any doubt arise as to the regularity of an entry, or any other important matter, which the judge or awarding committee feels incompetent to decide, the same shall at once be reported to the Superintendent of the department for decision, which, when made, will be final.
6. In classes where young stock are shown against older ones the attention of the judge is called to disparity and due consideration shall be given in making the award.
7. The judges shall report their decision of premiums awarded to the Superintendent of their respective departments.
8. All premiums must be awarded and claimed within thirty (30) days from the close of the Fair or they will be forfeited to the Society.

CONSTITUTION

Fayette County Agricultural Society

Article I – Title

This Society shall be known as the Fayette County Agricultural Society.

Article II - Object

The object of this Society shall be to promote agriculture, horticulture, and the rearing of better livestock; to improve domestic science; promote general community betterment, and especially to encourage youth participation in all of these phases of community improvement.

Section 6. Annual meeting of the membership of the Society will be held on the second Monday of September.

Article IV - Board of Directors

Section 1. The management of the Society shall consist of the Board of thirteen members who shall be designated & such Directors shall be elected for a term of three years & so arranged that five shall be for three years; four for two years; & four for one year. Thereafter, their successors shall be elected for terms of three years.

Section 2. Any member of the Society, desiring to become a candidate for Director, shall declare their candidacy for the office of a Director of the Agricultural Society by filing with the Secretary a petition signed by ten or more members of the Fayette County Agricultural Society, thirty days before the fair begins. Only regularly nominated candidates who have met the filing requirements shall be eligible for election as a Director. Blank petitions can be obtained from the Secretary. All Candidates for an unexpired term must file a special petition for this position.

Section 3. Regular board meetings are held on the second Monday of each month. Meetings may be called or cancelled at the discretion of the president.

Article V - Election Notice

Section 1. The annual election of Directors of the Society shall be by ballot, at the Fairgrounds, on the third Monday in August in the Mahan Building between the hours of 2 PM and 6 PM. The Secretary of the Society shall give notice of such an election three (3) weeks prior to the Fair thereof by publication in two newspapers of opposite politics, if available, of general circulation in Fayette County, or by letter mailed to each member of the Society.

Section 2. The name of all new candidates shall be published in the newspapers of not more than six (6) months nor less than two (2) weeks before the fair begins.

Section 3. The president shall appoint three judges and two clerks who are members of the Society, but are not candidates for election to conduct the election and declare the results thereof. Candidates may witness the count, either personally or by proxy. The judges shall have the membership roll and verify the rights of all persons before receiving their ballots. The clerks shall register the names of all persons voting and tally the count. One copy of the register and tally sheet shall be filed with the Secretary, and a copy mailed to the Department of Agriculture of Ohio within ten (10) days after the election.

Section 4. Members shall cast their vote in person at the designated voting place. No proxy votes permitted.

Section 5. Any vacancy caused by death, resignation, refusal to qualify, or other causes, may be filled by the Board until the next annual election, when a director shall be elected to fill the unexpired term.

Section 6. The terms of office of the retiring Directors shall expire and that of the Directors-elect shall begin on the second Monday of September of each year or until their successors are qualified.

Article VI - Organization and Meeting

Section 1. The Board of Directors may meet annually on the second Monday of September of each year, and elect a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer and such other officers as it may deem proper, to serve one year and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Section 2. All officers shall be elected from the membership of the Board except the Secretary and Treasurer, who may or may not be members of the Board of Directors. The election of officers shall be by ballot.

Article VII - Amendments

Section 1. Amendments to the Constitution or Bylaws may be proposed by: (A). A majority of the Board of Directors at a scheduled meeting, voting in favor of submitting an amendment. (B). Filing a petition with the Secretary of the Society at least fourteen (14) days prior to the Annual Meeting of the Society to which such proposed amendments are to be submitted. Said petition must set forth the proposed amendment and be signed by not less than twenty-five (25) members of the Society.

Section 2. When more than one amendment shall be submitted at the same time, they shall be submitted as to enable the members to vote on each amendment separately.

File monthly with the Board at each of its meetings, and such other times as he/she may be directed to do so by the Board, a detailed and itemized statement of the receipts and expenditures of the Society. He/She shall receipt the Auditing and Finance Committee for all admission and grandstand tickets turned over to him/her before and after the Fair and off season events, take receipts from the committee for all admissions and grandstand tickets not sold; he/she shall give bond with sureties, approved by the Board, for the faithful discharge of his/her duties, in such amount as the Board may require.

Section 5. It shall be the duty of the Security Committee to coordinate with the Sheriff to appoint all duties necessary for day and night service; keep time and report the same to the Secretary; keep his force properly organized, in order to protect property and exhibits.

Article V - Duties of Committees

Section 1. It shall be the duty of the Grounds and Building Committee to see that the grounds are kept in a neat and clean condition; that the buildings, fences and other property are kept in proper repair; erection of new buildings and improvements upon the grounds, and employ a suitable person as custodian of the grounds, according to the direction of the Board.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the Finance and Auditing Committee to inspect & audit the accounts and make a report of its findings to the Board of Directors, said report to show an itemized statement of receipts & expenditures for the year.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of the Advertising Committee to secure all necessary printing and advertising for the Society as well as all sponsorships, and have a general supervision of the advertising of the Fair, as the Board may direct.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the Concessions (Tents, Outdoor Display, and Music) Committee to secure suitable attractions and music for the Fair, grant space and locate all privileges on the grounds, collect rental for privileges, have a general supervision over the same. This committee shall not in any way allow or tolerate immoral shows, lottery devices, games of chance, or gambling of any kind, and any other features objectionable to the committee. This committee shall have the power to stop, remove, and if necessary, cause arrest for any violation of these rules or the rules of the Ohio State Department of Agriculture or the laws of Ohio.

Section 5. The duties of the Special Committee shall be defined in the resolutions authorizing their appointment.

Article VI- Duties of Superintendents

Section 1. The Superintendent of Livestock shall help with the arrangement of classes, pens, and awards as well as displaying the livestock in a neat and suitable fashion.

Section 2. The Superintendent Departments shall grant space, oversee the arrangement of exhibits to the greatest advantage of making them neat and attractive. Shall have charge of their respective classes, secure competent judges and place the awards, record the decision of the judges in the proper class book, and have a general oversight of class or classes.

Article VII

Section 1. The Board of Directors may adopt such rules and regulations for conducting the business of the Society as it deems proper, which do not conflict with the Constitution, By-Laws, Regulations of the Ohio Department of Agriculture or laws of the State of Ohio.

Article VIII - Order of Business

Section 1. (1) Roll call; (2) Reading and approval or adoption of minutes; (3) Bills and accounts; (4) Unfinished business; (5) New business; (6) Report of special committees; (7) Report of standing committees; (8) Report of officers; (9) Miscellaneous business; (10) Appointments; (11) Adjournment.

Section 2. This order of business may be temporarily suspended at any meeting by a majority vote of the Board.

Article IX - Protests

Section 1. All protests shall be filed in writing by the close of the Fair and shall be accompanied by a fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) which will not be returned if the protest be not sustained. Protests shall be decided by the Board of Directors and their decision is final.

Article X

Section 1. The Secretary shall give bond to the approval by the Board of Directors in the sum of $25,000. In the event that the offices of Secretary and Treasurer are performed by one person, the bond shall be $25,000 and expenses of said bond paid by the Agricultural Society.

Resolutions

No person shall be permitted to make solicitations of any nature on the fairgrounds except in contracted concessions or commercial rented spaces.

TESTING FOR DRUGS

The Fayette Co. Fair Board shall have the right to require place 1 through 5 in each class of animals, or any other suspected animal, to be subject to examinations or tests as prescribed by the Board to determine if a substance has been administered to the animal to change the conformation or temperament of the animal.

RULE VIOLATIONS

In the question of a rule violation, the following due process will be used: The exhibitor and/or parties involved will be questioned by Fair Officials in that particular department. If it is felt a violation has occurred, the department official will make recommendations to the Fair Board.

In the decision of a case being brought before the Board all parties involved will be notified of a hearing date with all parties having the right to present their case.

Upon hearing the case, the Fayette County Fair Board will make a ruling.

When satisfactory evidence has been obtained by the Fair Board that any of the livestock rules have been violated, the exhibitor and/or exhibitor's family may be barred from showing in any future Fairs. The minimum number of years for the disbarment is three (3) years before the right to a review. In case any premium shall have been awarded to animals shown in violation of this rule, the Fayette County Fair Board will request the exhibitor to refund all premiums, trophies, awards, ribbons and sale money under such violation.

LIVESTOCK TAMPERING AND/OR MISREPRESENTATION

TAMPERING AND/OR MISREPRESENTATION as to breeding, age, ownership, custody and any other irregularity in showing will be considered fraud and deception.

To maintain a high degree of confidence and integrity in the livestock shows, the agricultural society reserves the right to disqualify any animal fitted in an unethical manner and disqualify the exhibitor and the exhibitor's assistants who fitted the animal involved.

Unethical fitting shall include any cutting or tearing of the hide, cutting or tearing underneath the hide or removal of tissue in any attempt to alter the shape or appearance. It shall also include attempts to disrupt or change normal dental development, dyeing or coloring hair, adding artificial tailheads, switches, polls, hair and heels, as well as any attempt to change the conformation and degree of firmness, by administration of fluids or air internally or externally in a liquid, solid or gaseous state. Transparent grooming materials only may be used.

ABSOLUTELY NO DRENCHING ALLOWED FOR ANY REASON.

THE USE OF CLENBUTEROL AND OTHER UNAPPROVED DRUGS IS PROHIBITED.

All exhibitors, their immediate family and any other parties involved in the unethical fitting and showing of an animal may be barred from exhibiting or showing at this fair and may forfeit all premiums, prize money and awards won in any junior fair and/or open class divisions.

SHOULD FRAUD OR DECEPTION, AND PROOF, AS DETERMINED BY THE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY, BE DISCOVERED AFTER THE ANIMAL OR ANIMALS HAVE BEEN SHOWN AND PRIOR TO THE SALE, such animal(s) shall not be permitted to sell. The animals placing next in line at the show shall move up.

SHOULD VIOLATION BE DISCOVERED AFTER THE SALE, all sale money shall be returned to the buyer and the animal, carcass or carcass value shall be returned to the exhibitor. All placings in show will stand. NO animals will move up. Any carcass suspected of being tampered with or suspected of containing drugs will be detained until the investigation is complete.

IF THE CARCASS IS CONDEMNED at the packing plant for any reason, it shall be grounds for disqualification in the on-foot and carcass division of the show. Additionally, all premiums and sale money shall be forfeited and the loss of the animal be incurred by the exhibitor. Final decisions are made by the Senior Fairboard.

Rule 901-19-02 Types of shows; slaughter.

This is a mandatory rule.
(A) The sponsor of an exhibition shall designate each of the shows held at the exhibition as one of the following types: terminal show, partial terminal show, or non-terminal show.
(B) All of the following junior livestock shows or classes at a fair must be terminal shows or partial terminal shows unless at least thirty days prior to the opening of the show, the sponsor has submitted a written request to exempt a show from this provision, and the director has provided written authorization granting this request prior to the start of the fair: (1) Market beef steer; (2) Market hog; (3) Market lamb; (4) Market dairy steer; (5) Veal calf; and (6) Market goat.
(C) All livestock which participate in a terminal show shall be consigned to slaughter either at the conclusion of the show or immediately following the exhibition.
(D) In a partial terminal show at least the grand champion and the reserve grand champion shall be slaughtered. Prior to the show, the sponsor of the exhibition may require that additional livestock from a partial terminal show shall be slaughtered. The livestock shall be consigned to slaughter either at the conclusion of the show or immediately following the exhibition.
(E) All livestock required to be slaughtered under this rule shall be slaughtered at a meat establishment either licensed by the department or granted inspection by the United States department of agriculture.
(F) Notwithstanding paragraphs (B), (C) and (D) of this rule, livestock required to be slaughtered under this rule may, at the option of the sponsor of the exhibition, be consigned to a licensed livestock facility for sale provided that: (1) The livestock is consigned either at the conclusion of the show or immediately following the exhibition; and, (2) The livestock is sold only for slaughter.
(G) From the beginning of the exhibition until departure for slaughter or consignment to a licensed livestock facility, the exhibitor or the exhibitor's designee shall be responsible for caring for the livestock.
(H) Livestock destined for slaughter or consignment to a licensed livestock facility shall not be removed from the exhibition grounds until the livestock is transported to slaughter, to the licensed livestock facility, or until the sponsor approves movement of the livestock to another secure area for: (1) Disease control in accordance with paragraph (B)(4) of rule 901:1-18-03 of the Administrative Code; and (2) Quarantine for residue to allow a withdrawal time as determined by the approved fair veterinarian or in accordance with the instructions listed on the drug use notification form to elapse and may be subject to testing.
(I) All livestock destined for slaughter shall be subject to testing by the director in accordance with section 901.73 of the Revised Code.
(J) Livestock carcasses passing inspection may be released for normal disposition.
(K) During inspection or testing, if the livestock carcass is preliminarily determined to have been tampered with or found to contain an unlawful substance, one of the following shall occur: (1) If the livestock carcass must be trimmed or reconditioned to comply with the meat inspection requirements, the carcass shall be trimmed and reconditioned and released to the exhibitor, unless the successful bidder accepts the trimmed or reconditioned carcass. (2) If the livestock carcass cannot be trimmed or reconditioned, it shall be condemned in accordance with the meat inspection requirements.
(L) Livestock entered in or eligible for a carcass contest prior to or during a terminal, partial terminal or non-terminal show must be exhibition drug residue legal at the time of show and eligible for immediate slaughter.

Rule 901-19-03 Auction sales at terminal or partial terminal shows.

This is a mandatory rule.
(A) A sponsor may hold an auction sale of livestock exhibited at a terminal or partial terminal show.
(B) An exhibitor who exhibits livestock at a terminal show or partial terminal show consents to participating in the subsequent auction sale.
(C) All bidders at an auction sale following a terminal show or partial terminal show consent to the slaughter of the livestock or delivery to a licensed livestock facility.
(D) Title to livestock sold at an auction sale and subsequently presented for slaughter or sale at a licensed livestock facility shall remain vested in the exhibitor. If the exhibitor is not the owner, the title to the livestock shall remain vested in the owner until the livestock has been passed by inspection and released in accordance with paragraphs (K)(1) and (K)(2) of rule 901-19-02 of the Administrative Code and passes all testing performed by or at the direction of the department or the sponsor.
(E) At the discretion of the sponsor, the sponsor may collect the sale proceeds from the successful bidder and retain the proceeds until the carcass of the livestock has been released, or may allow the successful bidder to withhold payment of the proceeds until the carcass is released. In the event the carcass is not released, the sponsor shall return the sale proceeds to the successful bidder.

(F) Prior to the auction, the sponsor shall announce the identification of the exhibition livestock which have been administered drugs for which the withdrawal time has not elapsed.

Fayette County Born & Raised Meat Goat and Sheep Contest

This year there will be a Fayette County Born and Raised Meat Goat and Sheep Contest. Competition will be limited to Fayette County Junior Fair project exhibitors within the species.

Fayette County born and raised goats and sheep are those goats and sheep born in Fayette County and either raised by the junior fair exhibitor or sold by a breeder to a junior fair exhibitor within Fayette County.

Fayette County born and raised goats and sheep must meet all Junior Fair show requirements to be eligible and can be shown in the Junior Fair show, Performance Contest, and Fayette County Born & Raised Meat Goat Contest or Fayette County Born & Raised Sheep Contest.

Fayette County born and raised goats or sheep will be identified on tag-in day as a Fayette County born and raised goat or sheep based on their scrapie identification farm premise tag.

The two highest placing Fayette County born and raised goats and sheep in each class of the junior fair show will be eligible to show for the Fayette Count y Born & Raised Meat Goat or Sheep Championship Drive.

Fayette County Champion and Reserve Born & Raised Meat Goat and Sheep will each receive a banner.
